“ We are going to need your prayers as we go say a last goodbye to Barry (aka: barefoot) Staton. Say a prayer for Judy Staton as she lost her husband but her forever friend, they were together for many, many years. David Staton this man was your dad but also your friend and they will never be another friend like him, remember he is always with you. There will be a void that cannot be filled but remember he is always with you. Watch for the signs. I'm pretty selfish myself be I would bring him back if I had the power bc he was my friend as well as Richard's friend. If I had a computer problem I always called Barry bc he could clean a computer out even if I had got a virus, he always said I will come and get and he did, I never had one that he couldn't fix. My old computer was a dinosaur and he would fix it. Richard and Barry raced every Saturday night at the Baileyton DragStrip " the goodtime " they tried there best to not run each other and they were lucky most of the time but when they did pair up they ran each other clean. We all retired at the same time. There will never be another Barry Staton. We will meet again. Rest easy my friend.
