“ I will never forget my maw maw. Her laughter her smile I can still see and hear. My nickname "puss-urban" will never leave me. Neither will my baby's nickname "Butterbean". How he loved to hear that and answer to it! I am happy that she was able to see my sons grow, see my oldest start school. She is proud of them! I will miss her jokes, her games, her huge heart that touched everyone. I like many wished I could've spent more time with her. And I will always question why God decided to take her just hours within my birthday. And why we couldn't have celebrated both our birthdays together one last time. I guess instead my Granny is celebrating my baby's birthday up there in heaven. For the last thing she told me was "happy birthday".

“ Having to say goodbye to my mom was one of the hardest experiences of my life.

It had only been min's since mom passed away, and the idea of losing her was more than I could bear. No longer could I hear her voice say, “I love you.” No longer could I see her smile or feel her hand holding mine The last words me and Mom shared were I love you.

As I awake to another day on earth the memories return and the sadness resurfaces.

I miss mom so much. she meant the world to me and all of us. I'll never forget The day I lost you. I thank God every day that I had mom like you

Mom I miss you so very much. Everything thing you did meant so much to me, I wish I could see your loving smile. I will not ever forget you. I love you so much.

You were always there for me, as you were for everyone else, and I never took the time to say "thank you".

You were without a doubt the best Mother in the world. I love and miss you very much. Not a day will go by that I won't be think of you. I miss you so much.

*Heavenly Father Please Help me with the pain in my heart
Thank You for creating heaven. A place where we will spend eternity with You and our loved ones . Help us live with a joyful heart and share the hope we have of eternal life with others. In Jesus' Name, Amen*
