“ Mrs. Burma was an credible tiny woman with a huge heart and determination. I was fascinated at her strength when, she was still driving, to see her hoist her walker into the back of her huge suv after church service and drive away. That tiny sweet woman driving away with so much confidence. She was so easy to love and was loved by all who knew her.

“ Burma was one of Smoke Rise Baptist Church's most faithful members when I was the pastor. Her words of encouragement always lifted our spirits. She was dearly loved by all and a dear friend of mine.
