“Cathy came into my life through her ministry In Beattyville Kentucky. Their church was an outreach to the government housing where I lived and she took me under her wing. She loved me like her own and became family. She took me to church when no one would. She was one of the first Godly people helping to guide my life and gave me my start. I wouldn't be the Christian I am today without the love Cathy gave me. She drove from Alabama to Kentucky to my Police Academy Graduation. We talked often and shared many memories. In 2018 while on vacation, I took a detour to stop and have supper with her. What I would give to have her hug my neck once more. I know Heaven is rejoicing and the homecoming she is having know. She will always be missed and loved.

“Ms. Cathy was a true believer in Jesus Christ. She was a faithful member of the Evangel Worship Church, Pastor Rickey Bell. She was always happy and in a good mood. She was the overseer of the women's house and ministry where she helped many struggling women. Cathy will be missed by many. Her kindness will not be soon forgotten. Prayers to Miss Allison and all.

Love Always,
