“ I remember the early days when my Uncle Paul began dating Debbie. I did something I thought was really funny, but my Uncle Paul was certainly not amused as the adult in charge. Debbie, however, had a hard time controlling her laughter, then giggles, then smiles. It was then that I knew she was a keeper, whether Paul knew it or not. Aunt Debbie had a heart of joy that simply overflowed onto everyone that she met, like little drops of sweet, honeyed dew that danced into the hearts of family, friends, and strangers. It wasn't something she did or was even conscious of, it's just who she was. She fulfilled her God-given mission and I am so blessed to be able to call her family. Thank you, Uncle Paul, for loving our Aunt Debbie.
