Johnny, Karen, Amy & Chris - I loved your mother & always have. She was precious and shared many old family memories with me. She was apparently my parent's favorite child before I ever came into the world. She said Daddy drove a truck delivering on a route in Dekalb County when she was little. Said he would always bring her something & stop to hug her. She said she would lay down in the road on that certain weekday waiting for him. She & my mother remained big buddies way after my Dad died. And I remember she helped me make Aunt Irene's last trip down to see family possible. Irene stayed with her every day while was at work then I took her that weekend to Aunt Jessie's in GA & part of our Charleston folks met us there. Your mother was always there to help. She was such a blessing. Praying for you all.
