“ I've know Dora since I delivered her mail in 2001. She met me at the door and asked if I was new. From then on, it was such a treat to have her come to the door each time I delivered to her. We became friends immediately, sharing memories, prayer requests, and meals; either sharing what she prepared or a pizza that I would stop and pick up before sharing my lunch break with her. There were many long visits as well. She was loyal to her Church as long as she was able to attend; however, I did get her to attend ours with us for a Christmas banquet. Her Christian faith was strong and she was certain of her Heavenly destination. She longed for her Heavenly home it but was in no hurry to go because she loved being with her family and friends. My wife and I will miss her but will see her again!
