“ As a first cousin and just a little older than Fay I remember many happy times spent as children and adults as we gathered with the Strickland/lin family. My memories of her kindness and caring attitude as an adult is what stands out now. She was an example and an inspiration as she quietly found folks who needed a helping hand or a kind word of encouragement. She loved her family dearly! Serving God and leaving a lasting legacy of love is the sweet and lasting memories for me. Dear family I pray you will take up the torch! Travis Stewart
