“ Mrs. Stone was so sweet to me during my years in Midwest City when Betsy and I were BFFs. I will always remember her interest in Betsy and my adventures and Monday night pizza at her house. God bless and keep you, kind lady. Chris Taylor

“ I loved Aunt Jean. I can still hear that distinct southern drawl. She never lost it. When they moved from Alabama to Oklahoma, we were afraid she would pick up their “accent”. No, she never wavered the least bit. I loved listening to that voice. Will always hear it in the memories in my mind. You were one of a kind Aunt Jean. A perfect match for Dear Uncle Charlie.
