Joshua was a minister in the Church of God and loved evangelizing to spread the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ. His hearts desire was to see all come to repentance and none perish. He was a talented musician, singer and song writer who loved sharing his gifts, but never to his praise, but that God would get all the glory. His smile could light up the darkest night and He shined the love and joy of Jesus everywhere he went. To know him was to love him and only Heaven knows how many lives he touched. Even in his own suffering and battle with cancer, he faithfully held to his faith and never stopped praising God. He loved his family and his family loved him. Daddy bear, Mama bear and brother bear will never be the same, but yet they continue to hope and trust that there will be a great reunion day. Eternity together!

“ Sarah and family, My heart is breaking for each of you in the loss of your love one. It has been many years now since I have seen you and the members of your family. I miss the family reunions that we all attended over the years. There is no doubt in my mind about that great reunion that is going to take place in heaven. I never got to hear or read any of Joshua's music, but I do know that if he was anything like his mother, he was a very talented musician and Christian. I'm sure that he is in heaven and has reunited with his granddad Robert and they are picking and singing songs for the Lord. As the song states "What a glad reunion day that will be". I will be praying for comfort for you and the family. I love all of you. Faye Williams Cook
