“ you know I never thought I would be writing this, especially not in memory of my grandfather...life just isn't the same...

I will never forget what a great person my grandfather was, he was the type of person that would give you the shirt on his back, if you were in need of one...My Grandfather was an amazing human being, he worked hard all his life to provide for his whole family, growing up there was never a dull moment. He made sure we had more than enough food in the fridge, & snacks to share with our neighbors or friends of the family... thanks to him our family was always unite, he brought out the best of us, no matter what we were going through that day. He had the best advice & the funniest jokes.. That laugh, man I will never forget his laugh...I am crying while writing this because my mind is just filled with all the memories of him, & it hurts knowing I dont have him here anymore.... I hate that we have to grow up, that we become distant and forget how valuable our family is at times. I hate that we have to go through this, I hate that I don't fully understand this at 25 yrs. old, all I know is we have our angel in heaven watching over us now... and life as we know it will never be the same.

te extranamos abuelito, angel se va a graduar la semana que viene y no dejo de pensar en ti...en todo lo que nos dijistes , yo se que gracias a ti todo esta bien entre nosotros. Gracias abuelito lo quiero mucho y siempre estaras en mi Corazon.
