“ My favorite Judy story is from her bus driving days. She was talking about the kids being packed like sardines on there and she'd have that whole drivers seat to herself. She said sometimes she'd just turn around and say "Yall comfy back there?" 😊😊 There are 1million more stories I could tell, each funnier than the next. I loved that woman like mother, a sister, and a friend. RIP until we meet again, Jude! ❤️

“ I have known and loved Judy since elementary school. One of the most kind and sweet people I have ever known. Her Christian example has been a beacon of God's light for as long as I can remember. You left very unexpectedly and way too soon, but you are home wrapped in the arms of Jesus! RIP until we meet again. Thanks for your love all these years!!!

“ So many beautiful memories of Judy . She shared her gorgeous Daughter Stephanie with Bobby and me before we could have children. We would fight over that baby . One night we headed out to Roy and Judy's house to see that baby even though it was sleeting outside. We get there and we are racing to the house to see who could get Stephanie first. Bobby pushes ahead of me nearly knocking me down ,not knowing there's a sheet of ice on the porch , he hits the ice ,then down on his rear slides trough the storm door , thank God Roy had just opened the front door , Bobby slides right past Roy all the way across the living room to the couch where Judy is sitting , she just looks down at him and says " we'll come on in Bobby " . How I miss those days and I sure will miss Judy . Joyce and Judy were always my other sisters . Our love for Judy will never die . I can just see Aunt Chris, Uncle Bonehead,Janice and Judy having a glorious reunion in Heaven.
