“ Kelton Williams was one of the most gifted, loving pastors my family ever had. His special gift was preaching Bible prophecy. I'm sure he will be sorely missed by his family. God bless each and every one of you.

“ Mickey, Stephen and family, on Wednesday there was a celebration in Heaven! I can only imagine the grand entrance as the angels ushered your Dad into the presence of Jesus! Hope was finally turned into the greatest reality no human mind can conceive. So glad we serve a Lord and Savior that not only suffered the cross, He got up on the third day to give us resurrection life! What love, what mercy, what grace!!!

The greatest memories I have of your Dad is the day he led Brent to Jesus, the course of eternity was changed forever. He also baptized Amanda and Heather. Our lives were impacted by the many messages he brought and I am eternally grateful! May the coming days bring you a peace that passes all understanding and you find that God's grace has been, is, and will always be sufficient! He will carry you! Praying for you! Darlene Windom
