“ Larry was one of, if not my dearest and closet friend. We met when I married his grade school buddy Dennis Swords in 1969, He since that time, until the LORD took him home would have done anything for me, Me or my family could always count on him. It is hard to write this for the tears, I miss him so. He was a special man, always helping somebody, somewhere. I know he had friends this world over. Hope to see you soon my love.
