“ My Beloved older brother Jack whom I loved so much my entire life. We talked every week. I know his great loves were God family and country. He had no enemies and he extended a hand of friendship and fellowship to the many people he met through out his life. His wit and humor were so dry he was actually funny. Growing up we had chores but after he started working he would pay me do do his. Do you know how many Baby Ruth's a dollar would buy in 1954. Jack was well traveled as was I but we shared a love for the Great Smokie Mountains. Our wife's would shop and we would explore. I wish everyone could experience the close bond of an older brother. I loved him dearly. Rest in peace dear Brother, you were much loved and will be greatly missed.
