

Patti Liverett

November 11, 1939 - March 31, 2019

Patti Liverett, 79, died March 30, 2019 in Port St. Lucie, Florida.

Mrs. Liverett was born in Catlettsburg, Kentucky and resided in Fort Pierce, Florida.

Pat graduated from Jackson High School in Jackson, Ohio and was a member of Riverview Baptist Church, Fort Pierce. She loved spending time with her children and grandchildren, serving at her church, and enjoyed roller skating and did so until she moved into the nursing home.

Pat was a loving, kind-hearted soul who loved to laugh and made friends wherever she went. She developed Alzheimer's several years ago and her husband, Tom, took care of her for years and when she moved to the nursing home, he visited her every day. She fought long and hard and she has finished her race. She is now Home in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior. Her beloved family will miss her, but we will continue to share our precious memories and carry her in our heart.

Survivors include her husband, Tom Liverett of Fort Pierce, FL; daughter-in-law, Gayle Liverett of Hudson, WI; daughter, Cindi Liverett of Park Forest, IL; son, Greg (Leslie) Liverett of Montgomery, TX; granddaughters, Aubrey (Adam) Reyzer of Prescott, WI, Amanda Liverett of Hudson, WI, Jordan Liverett of Park Forest, IL; grandsons, Thomas (Elizabeth) Liverett of Auckland, New Zealand, Kyle Girman of Hobart, IN and Nicholas (Rebecca) Liverett of Denton, TX; great-grandchildren, Evan, Coraline, Ada, Brayden, and Jackson; brothers, Jack (Gladys) Blackburn of Jackson, OH, Terry

(Elaine) Blackburn of Canton, OH; sisters, Sue McKenzie of Jackson, OH and Rudy Amagliani of Copperas Cove, TX; sisters-in-law, Ophelia Flanagin of Albertville, AL, Marion (Harold) Wallace of Leesburg, FL; brothers-in-law, Bill Pace of Taylor, MI and Mike (Cyndi) Liverett of Albertville, AL; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her son, Rodney Liverett, sister-in-law, Margaret Pace, and brothers-in-law, Clyde McKenzie and Gus Amagliani.
