“ Dad,

Each fathers day that passes without being able to call you is rough to say the least. Spent my day with the boys and CMK. Had many chores to take care of however and after washing the van decided that the 4Runner needed a wash and wax as well. JCK has taken very good care of it and JRK like to ride in it as it sets up high. As I worked my way around I could hear your voice on where every scratch, ding and nick that is has came from. Your presence is beyond the physical things we have left and I often pull from our conversations as a father today. I miss you dearly and I honor you as best I can. Thank you for always listening even when you wanted to advise me and also for waiting to advise when you knew it was the right time. With much love - your son. BK

“ Dad,

The past three months were tough. I felt you with me and the family as the work search continued. I know you were with me before and during my final interviews. Your advice of just be yourself and if they don't like it you don't want to work for them anyway was spot on.

Thank you for all the life conversations we had and thank you for continuing to watch over all of us. Love BK

“ Dad,

Hard to think about it being two years since you went on to watch over us. There is not a day that goes by that I don't think of you and our conversations. Wish we had time for more of them however I cherish the ones we had and know that you listen when I am talking through life now.

Thank you for watching over us all. We love you,

“ Dad,

My first fathers day without being able to talk to you is this weekend. I feel your presence and know you are there, some days are better than others however you are dearly missed. Miss our phone calls about daily life events and cherish the ones we had.

I know you are watching over all of us, so proud of Justin graduating High School with Honors and Joshua taking the next step to middle school.

Thank you for always listening even if you didn't agree and for being there when I needed to vent. Trying to be the best Dad for our boys that I can be, there are times I make mistakes however as you always said learn from them and move forward.

Love you

Britt

“ Dad,

I've reached for the phone countless times to call you..... I hear your voice when it's one of those days and I feel your presence when needed even more.

Missing you would be an understatement. Hearts are still filled with sorrow with you not physically here yet joyful that you are not in pain. Keep watching over us... :-)

We love you & miss you however we've not forgotten you.

With all my heart,

Britt

“ Dad,

You always taught me to learn from my mistakes as well as your mistakes. I have always taken that advice to be a better son, husband and father.

When I did make a mistake you said not to be afraid to admit that I failed.

Your words on Family are with me everyday "Family, Family. Family- Always put them first no matter what anyone else thinks....."

As I look at our boys I see many of the principals that you shared with me in them. You will forever live through us and continue to touch the lives of others as you did each day.

We are so thankful that your life path crossed with Mary Alice. Your light grew so much brighter with her with you. We enjoyed our family trips together making memories that we think of today.

Dad, we miss you we love you however we will never forget you.

Love, Britt, Candy, Justin and Joshua
