“ Rickey was a great classmate, and friend. I especially remember a recent class reunion when he led the prayer, very heart felt and touching. Rick never was much for the serious side of things, always picking at someone but i was told by fellow church members he was serious about his faith and service to the Lord Jesus. Truly God broke the mold after making him. My condolences and sympathies to the family, please excuse my absence but I am present in spirit and prayers Lane "Slag" Johnson (He always called me by my nickname)
