Rodney “Rod” Lynn Sisco, 54, of Albertville, Alabama, passed away on May 1, 2025, surrounded by loved ones.

Rod was born on April 10, 1971, to Ernest Sisco and Helen D. Sisco. Known for his warm heart, quick wit, and unmistakable voice, Rod lived a life deeply rooted in community, creativity, and love for his family.

A lifelong music enthusiast, Rod began working at WQSB as a teenager, and it quickly became more than just a job — it became his calling. For nearly four decades, he shared his passion for music with listeners across the region, becoming a familiar and comforting presence on the airwaves. Rod was the proud father of three children: Savannah Jade Kessler (Greg), Asia Lane Johnson (Jeff), and Grant Sisco. He loved his children dearly and took great pride in the people they have become.

He enjoyed spending time with family, connecting with listeners, and filling every space with music and laughter. His memory will live on through the songs he played, the stories he told, and the smiles he gave us.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Rod remotely for over five years. He was always kind, quick with a joke, and a true professional. I'm deeply saddened to hear of his passing. Sending heartfelt love and comfort to his family, friends, and everyone who had the joy of knowing him.

“ I worked Rod through the entire decade in the 90's until 2001. He was a good guy who was easy to get along with. I was the chief engineer and interacted with all the on air folks on a daily basis. One stormy night in the late night I was driving to the tower because of an off air situation. I received a call from Rod. I assumed it was about the off air situation. He asked me how it was going and I told him I was driving through a rainstorm but almost there. He told me He wanted to tell me something because he knew I'd be glad to hear it. He and I had talked about the Lord and he knew I was a Christian. He told me he had been saved at a revival meeting that night and knew I would want to know. Despite my situation, I was blessed and told him I was happy he let me know. I hold this memory and know I will see my friend again.
