Brother Roger was a great man of God. He preached his heart out at every revival and many souls came to Jesus because of his preaching, including some of our family. He had a tremendous love for his family. We shared some great times with Brother Roger and Betty in Gatlinburg and when he was holding revivals at New Bethel in Belmont, MS. He is greatly missed.

“ Roger Watkins was my grandmother's brother (Faye). She passed away many years ago and I am sure along with Betty, and many many more, she welcomed him into Heaven with open arms. Roger has always been a great teacher of God's word and 14 years ago he was part of our wedding ceremony as well. Roger will be greatly missed by a lot of people. We are praying for you, Chris, Dawn, and the rest of the family.

“ Bro Roger was a wonderful evangelist. We have many memories of him at New Bethel Baptist in Belmont, MS where he would preach, sing and often request prayer for his family. We are sure he has sung his final song and joined the chorus there.
