

Ronnie James Bowman

July 24, 1990 - December 17, 2024

Ronnie James “RJ” Bowman, of Huntsville, Alabama, was born on July 24, 1990, and passed away on December 17, 2024, at the age of 34. RJ’s passing leaves an immeasurable void in the hearts of his family and friends, who will forever cherish the memories of his vibrant and loving spirit.

He was preceded in death by his father, Ronnie Bowman. Left to honor his memory are his son, Connor Bowman, the light of his life; mother, Sonja Bowman; his loving sisters, Kristi Sears (Erik) and Jessica McFarland (Cody); his grandparents, James & Barbara Wilkinson; his Aunt Tina Calhoun (David, Valerie & Conner Stokes, Dylan). RJ shared a particularly special bond with his sister Kristi, whose love, understanding, and unwavering support meant the world to him. She is and has always been so very proud him.

RJ also leaves behind his adored nieces and nephews: Katelyn, Natasha, Aiden, Dakota, Todd, Emma, Bentley, and Jackson, all of whom will forever remember him as their fun, protective, and doting uncle.

RJ was the life of the party—a man with a magnetic personality, a laugh that could light up a room, and a heart full of love. He lived selflessly, never hesitating to help anyone in need, often quite literally giving the shirt off his back. Fiercely loyal, RJ defended his family with unmatched passion.

His bond with his family was one of the deepest parts of who he was. Together, they shared countless laughs, and a connection that transcended words—relationships that were truly one of a kind.

RJ's memory will live on in the love and light he shared, in the stories told, and in the lives he touched with his generosity and kindness.

A celebration of RJ's life will be held at a later date.

“ Dad I miss you so much when aunt Kriste told me you passed I did want to believe her but then nana told me and then I found out your actually gone I love you so much and will try my hardest to make you proud and I know your up there being the life of the party and it's kind of cool to have my own little guardian angel over me now and ik we didn't get to see each other much but I still loved you with all my heart and always will even with you gone but what hurts the most is that I couldn't see you before you went but ik you found peace and your happy now and your in a better place

“ RJ I know it's selfish of me but I don't want to believe this. When Joe told me I was ready to fist fight him and I didn't want to believe it when Stephanie told me. Why son ,why? It seems like the saying is true that the good ones go first. I love you and will love you as long as there's breath in me. I'll always cherish the memories especially the laughs we shared the last few days. I'm still sore from laughing so much. I wish things could have been different. I would trade places with you if God would let me. I'm going to do my absolute best to keep the promise I made to you. We are so proud and honored to have had you in our lives. We'll never be able to thank Stephanie enough for introducing you to us. I know the pain your parents and sisters are feeling first hands and it's a pain like no other let them know everyday that you are still with them as my son does for me. He's still bringing smiles to my face as are you. I can't stop picturing your million dollar smile and dimples. I'm not going to say goodbye but see you later. I love you son.
