“ Donna and Family, I was lucky enough to meet Keith after hearing about him and his work through my Dad (Barry) and my step mom (Mary Alice). We arrived for a visit in AL and he was there tending the lawn. Keith took immaculate care of their yard and the numerous (100 Keith counted them) bushes and shrubs. No matter the task his heart was in all that he did. When my Dad passed a few years ago Keith was paying his respects to a friend he lost and a father I lost - I now pay our respects to a great man that comforted me that day. We all thought the world of Keith and he will be missed for his generosity and kind and caring ways. Britt, Candy, Justin and Joshua.
