“ Even though Jason had been back in Alabama for quite a few years now I am pleased to be able to say that we had been able to maintain a friendship after he left California. Jason had a great sense a humor and lived his life to its fullest, good or bad. He experienced more than most will in a lifetime. I will miss his phone calls to “chat” and “catch up”. It gives me peace that he was very happy when he passed with his relationship with Becky and the birth of his grandchild. He loved his children Haley, Kaine and Lacey with his heart and sole and was very proud of each of them. His mom, dad, brother and sister, nieces, nephews and friends were all very dear to him. He was always so excited to talk about music and of course dirtbikes if he was given the chance. I want to say I am glad you were a part of my life Jason it made me a stronger and wiser woman. You made me laugh, cry, scream and experience any and all emotion possible. May you rest in peace Jason, you will be missed.
