“ Dear Stone Family,
I met Zachery "Pink Panther" at Brookwood, while visiting my son. What an encouraging force he was to those around him. He was witty, humorous and had a smile that just wouldn't quit. He was instrumental in making others feel welcome, included and open to the healing journey ahead. I am so sorry for your loss. Nothing quite compares to the loss of a child. Our loved ones that knew him at Brookwood now face the challenge of grieving a beloved new friend and not losing the ground they have made on their own healing journeys. I wish you peace and a renewed love for each other during this difficult time. You are in my prayers.
